Assets

1      Cash.

Each reporting institution must report in item 1 its total holdings of cash and balances due from depository institutions. These include:

- (a) Cash items in process of collection, currency, and coin.
- (1) Include all checks or drafts in process of collection that are drawn on a depository institution (or on a Federal Reserve bank) and that are payable immediately upon presentation in the United States. This includes both checks that have been forwarded for deposit, but for which the reporting institution has not been given credit and checks on hand (i.e., from undeposited receipts) that will be presented for payment or forwarded for collection on the following business day. (However, exclude those undeposited receipts received in late mails that will be included in the next day's business.)

Also include Government agency items that are payable immediately upon presentation and that are in process of collection and any other items in process of collection that are payable immediately upon presentation in the United States and that are customarily cleared or collected as cash items by depository institutions in the United States.

- (2) Include all currency and coin (any foreign currency and coin that may be held should be converted into U.S. dollar equivalents as of the report date) owned and held in all offices of the reporting institution. In addition, include amounts held in petty cash accounts and change funds in both central and field offices. Also include currency and coin in transit to any depository institution for which the reporting institution has not yet received credit, and currency and coin in transit from any depository institution for which the reporting institution's account at the depository institution has already been charged.

- (b) Holdings of interest-bearing and noninterest-bearing balances due from depository institutions in the United States and banks in foreign countries, whether in the form of demand, savings, or time balances. Though noninterest-bearing certificates of deposit and nonnegotiable interest-bearing certificates of deposit are to be included in this item, negotiable interest-bearing certificates of deposit are to be reported in Schedule RC-B, item 5(b).
- (c) Balances of all types, and for all purposes, due from Federal Reserve banks (e.g., funds held at Federal Reserve banks for payment of interest on consolidated and System-wide bonds, purchase of securities, redemption of called consolidated and System-wide bonds, clearing and working balances, etc.) as shown on the books of the reporting institution.

2      Securities.

Report in item 2 the amount of securities from Schedule RC-B. (See instructions for Schedule RC-B.) In most instances, the amount reported in item 2 will agree with Schedule RC-B, column B, item 13, unless the institution is accounting for any portion of its securities on a "held-to-maturity" basis. Securities reported must be accounted for in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 320, Investments-Debt and Equity Securities (formerly Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities).

3      Accounts receivable.

Report the amount of the reporting institution's accounts receivable in the form of amounts due on open accounts from other Farm Credit institutions and from others. Also include such receivables as:

- (a) Amounts of accrued compensation and patronage receivable from Farm Credit institutions due to the reporting institution relating to participations in loans, notes receivable, and sales contracts.
- (b) Amounts due from employees for reimbursable costs paid under employee retirement and group insurance plans, or for other amounts advanced for which the reporting institution is to be reimbursed.

- (c) Amounts due from borrowing associations, non-borrowing associations, and district banks for the amount of investment required to be made in the reporting institution's stock or participation certificates, in accordance with FCA regulations and guidelines, for which payment has not yet been received.
- (d) Amounts due from bonding companies for losses and legal expenses that were covered by bond.
- (e) Amounts due from courts and trustees in connection with foreclosed properties upon which the reporting institution had a lien and where the foreclosure sale was made to another.

All amounts of accounts receivable reported should be net of any amounts deemed uncollectible and charged off.

4      Loans, notes, sales contracts, and leases.

The amounts reported by the institution, as appropriate for its portfolio and in conformance to the applicable statutory and regulatory requirements, must reflect net principal amounts outstanding as of the close of business on the report date. This requires, among other things, that the reported amounts be net of:

- (a) All payments on principal received as of the close of business on the report date, including advance payments that are intended for irrevocable application to the reduction of principal, and also such payments received but not yet applied to the loan accounts as of that time; and
- (b) Undisbursed loan funds (deferred payment of loans), but include loan funds disbursed before the loan closing is recorded.

Unamortized loan fees should be deducted from loans in the amounts to be reported here, analogous to the treatment of discounted loans. The treatment of loan fees should be in accordance with ASC Subtopic 310-20, Nonrefundable Fees and Other Costs (formerly SFAS No. 91, Accounting for Nonrefundable Fees and Costs Associated with Originating or Acquiring Loans and Initial Direct Costs of Leases).

The amounts reported must reflect the cost of, or funds extended for, the loans, etc. In the case of loans acquired on a discount basis, the amount to be reported must be the cost adjusted by the addition of the cumulative accretion of discount through the report date. Such accretion of discount must be taken over the life of the instrument in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP).

4(a)      Accrual loans and leases.*

Loans of the reporting institution, in general, consist of extensions of credit, other than sales contracts and other contractual notes representing the financing of other property owned (which are treated below), resulting from either direct negotiations between the reporting institution and its customers, or the purchase of such assets from others through discounting, participations, or any other means. Similarly, loans should be reported net of such loan amounts sold, including sales of participations in these loans to other Farm Credit institutions and to any other financial institution.

Loans include the holdings by the reporting institution of its own acceptances (i.e., drafts accepted by the reporting institution) that were acquired through discount, purchase, or participation, but exclude the holdings of other institutions' acceptances (these are to be reported in Schedule RC-B, item 5(c)).

Loans consist of the unmatured principal balance of accrual loans made under the authority of the Act. The Act authorized System banks and associations to make loans to bona fide farmers, ranchers, producers or harvesters of aquatic products, rural residents, and persons furnishing services directly related to the on-farm operating needs of farmers and ranchers. The Act further authorizes Banks for Cooperatives to make loans to eligible cooperatives and to domestic or foreign parties that substantially benefit a cooperative which is a voting stockholder. Farm Credit banks are authorized to make loans, discount for, and extend other similar credit to System associations and other financing institutions making loans to farmers, ranchers, and producers or harvesters of aquatic products. Under the Act, Agricultural Credit Banks have the lending authorities of both the Banks for Cooperatives and Farm Credit banks. In addition, System institutions may participate in loans with other System institutions. The Farm Credit Leasing Services Corporation is authorized to enter into financial leasing agreements. (Note: In some schedules of the Call Report, but not in Schedule RC, loans, etc., are combined with accrued interest receivable.)

Lease receivables consist of amounts of receivables established as a result of the institution's financial leasing program. Lease financing transactions have many of the characteristics of other forms of installment loans. A typical lease agreement contains an option providing for purchase of the leased property by the lessee at the expiration of the lease at fair value or at a specified price. Lease receivables must be accounted for in accordance with ASC Topic 840, Leases (formerly SFAS No. 13, Accounting for Leases ). Report in this item the amounts outstanding of all holdings of accrual loans and leases in accordance with the preceding instructions.

4(b)	Notes receivable from other Farm Credit System institutions. This asset consists of the outstanding balance of notes receivables from Farm Credit banks, associations, or other Farm Credit System institutions. Notes receivable consist of the outstanding balance of short- and long-term corporate notes issued under formal legal procedures and secured by the pledge of specific collateral or by the general credit and good faith of the institution. Accordingly, notes receivable represent a contractual receivable and have definite repayment terms and conditions. Notes are generally interest bearing and the amount extended and recorded is the face amount of the note. In some cases, however, notes are issued on a discount basis and the interest is deducted in advance. Report in this item the amounts outstanding of all holdings of accrual notes receivable from other Farm Credit institutions.
4(c)	Other notes receivable. Report in this item the amounts outstanding of all holdings of other accrual notes receivable. Do not include in this item notes receivable from Farm Credit banks, associations, or other System institutions which are reported in item 4(b) above, (except for sales contracts and other contractual notes representing the financing of other property owned that are not reported on item 4(d)).
4(d)	Accrual sales contracts. Sales contracts consist of sales contracts to finance notes or other similar contractual agreements specifically entered into for the sale of property acquired through foreclosure or otherwise obtained in liquidation of loans. Amounts reported in this item shall represent all holdings of sales contracts outstanding. Sales contracts entered into by the reporting institution that offer interest rates substantially lower than prevailing market rates must be valued and accounted for in accordance with ASC Topic 835, Interest (formerly Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 21, Interest on Receivables and Payables ). ASC Topic 835 requires a sales contract bearing an interest rate substantially below market (i.e., not commensurate with the risk involved) to be discounted to its present value. The resulting loss must be recognized at the time of sale and the discount must be amortized over the term of the contract.

Item No.	Caption and Instructions
4(e)	Nonaccrual loans, etc. Nonaccrual loans represent all loans, and contracts and receivables appropriately classified as loans, where there is a reasonable doubt as to collection of future interest accruals. In substance, nonaccrual loans reflect loans where the accrual of interest has been suspended. Amounts include unpaid principal and accrued interest receivable plus any other appropriate amounts. (See definition of nonaccrual loans in 12 CFR 621.6(a).) Report in this item all loans, leases, notes receivable, and sales contracts that are in a nonaccrual status as of the close of business on the report date. Loans, etc., must be placed in nonaccrual status in accordance with GAAP, regulatory requirements, and other guidelines. (See instructions for Schedule RC-F for a definition of nonaccrual loans.)
4(f)	Allowance for losses on loans, etc. The allowance for loan losses is an estimate of the amount of potential losses within an institution's loan portfolio at a point in time. The allowance is maintained (added to) by charges against earnings in the form of operating expenses, routinely referred to as "provisions for loan losses." An institution is required to maintain an allowance for loan losses that is considered reasonable and adequate to provide for the inherent risk of losses, and which approximates the current amount of loans that will not be collected. Losses on loans are to be charged off to the allowance when known and under no circumstances shall charge-offs be deferred or amortized over a number of accounting periods. Report in this item the allowance for losses on loans, leases, notes receivable, sales contracts, and nonaccrual as determined in accordance with ASC Topic 450, Contingencies (formerly SFAS No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies), ASC Subtopic 310-40, Troubled Debt Restructurings by Creditors (formerly SFAS No. 114, Accounting by Creditors for Impairment of a Loan (as amended by SFAS No. 118)) and other applicable accounting guidance. The amount reported here must equal Schedule RI-E, item 8.
4(g)	Loan valuation adjustments for fair value. Report in this item the amount that represents adjustments to value loans outstanding in accordance with ASC Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging (formerly SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, as amended by SFAS No. 138). If the amount represents an adjusted reduction, report the amount with a preceding minus sign.

4(d)(ii)	Amount in excess of loan balance. Report the portion outstanding at the end of the period of funds held in the form of voluntary advance payment and voluntary advance conditional payment accounts maintained in accordance with the Farm Credit Act of 1971, as amended, and 12 CFR 614.4513(a) that are in excess of their respective outstanding loan balances (principal and interest) due from the borrower. -----------------	---------------------------------

CFR 614.4359. The attributed loan commitments should then be used to identify the institution's 10 largest loan commitments, as follows:

- 1) Generate a list of the institution's largest loan commitments by attributable borrower (including co-borrowers and guarantors, as applicable), sorted from largest to smallest (this list likely needs to cover more than the 10 largest accounts to facilitate steps 3 and 4 below).
- 2) Determine if any loan is included in more than one attributed account on the list. If yes, then proceed to step 3; if not, then report the total of the 10 largest attributed loan commitments from the list.
- 3) Calculate an adjusted commitment amount for the attributed accounts that have a loan in common by including the common loan(s) only once – include with the largest attributed account and subtract from the other(s). In cases where there are multiple common loans affecting different combinations of attributed accounts, institutions should apply judgment or a standardized process in determining the appropriate order for identifying the "largest" account and making the necessary adjustments so that loans are not double-counted.
- 4) Sort the list based on these adjusted commitment amounts, which may cause accounts that were initially in the 10 largest to now be replaced by other accounts; report the total of the 10 largest attributed loan commitments based on the adjusted amounts.

The following provides additional information and clarifications for reporting this line item:

- 12 CFR 614.4358(b) identifies items that are to be netted out from the loan commitment amount, including the following more common items (if specifically identified criteria are met):
  - Participations sold
  - Government guaranteed loans (guaranteed portion)
  - Federal Agricultural Mortgage Corporation (Farmer Mac) standby commitments
- Future payment funds/advance payment accounts should not be netted out when identifying total loan commitment. While this may cause the total loan commitment to be overstated in some cases, it will simplify the calculation process.

You must report assets such as U.S. Government securities, State and local obligations, non-governmental securities, Federal funds, securities purchased under resale agreements, acceptances of other financial institutions, negotiable certificates of deposit, corporate debt, and asset- and mortgage-backed securities paper, in this schedule. The schedule excludes equity investments in, and any holdings of, direct investments (e.g., certificates of indebtedness, notes receivable) in other Farm Credit System institutions.

This schedule has four columns for information on securities: two columns for held-to-maturity securities and two columns for available-for-sale securities.<sup>1</sup> Report the amortized cost and fair value of held-to-maturity securities in columns A and B, respectively. Report the amortized cost and fair value of available-for-sale debt securities in columns C and D, respectively. Information on equity securities with readily determinable fair values is reported in the columns for available-for-sale securities only (columns C and D). For these equity securities, historical cost (not amortized cost) is reported in column C and fair value is reported in column D.

In general, amortized cost is the purchase price of a debt security adjusted for amortization of premium or accretion of discount if the debt security was purchased at other than par or face value. As defined in ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (formerly FASB Statement No. 157, Fair Value Measurements), fair value is "the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date."

Purchases and sales of securities should generally be reported as of the trade date. Trade date accounting is the preferred reporting under GAAP. However, the settlement date may be used if the results do not materially differ from the use of the trade date.

Under trade date accounting, the purchase and sale of a security must be recorded on the trade date. When transfer of ownership (settlement) for a purchased security occurs on the trade date, the purchased security is to be reported in the appropriate security item in this schedule based on the trade date. If the transfer of ownership for a purchased security occurs after the trade date (which routinely occurs on the settlement date), the security can be reported in Schedule RC, item 9, <sup>1</sup> Available-for-sale securities are generally reported in Schedule RC-B, columns C and D. However, a bank may have certain assets that fall within the definition of "securities" in ASC Topic 320, Investments-Debt and Equity Securities (formerly FASB Statement No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities), (e.g., certain industrial development obligations) that the bank has designated as "available-for-sale" which are reported for purposes of the Report of Condition in a balance sheet category other than "Securities" (e.g., "Loans and lease financing receivables").

“Other Assets,” until the transfer of ownership occurs. Conversely, when a security is sold and the transfer of ownership occurs after the trade date, the security can continue to be reported in Schedule RC until the transfer of ownership (settlement) has occurred. However, any gains and losses resulting from a sale must be recognized on the trade date. An institution’s obligation for payment on a purchase or sale should be reported in Schedule RC, item 14, “Other liabilities.” On the settlement date, disbursement of the payment or receipt of the proceeds will eliminate the respective entry to “Other Liabilities” or “Other Assets” resulting from either a purchase or sale transaction.

The line items in Schedule RC-B call for information to be reported by specific type of security. All System institutions are to report on items 1 through 14. Only banks, or other System institutions as specifically required by the FCA, are required to report on items 15 through 17. The information required on each type of security is specified by the four columns of the schedule. Information on this schedule should be reported in accordance with the following instructions.

A Held-to-maturity—Amortized cost.

In column A, report the amortized cost of securities classified as held-to-maturity. For securities purchased at other than par or face value, the amortized cost to be reported is the cost of the securities purchased, adjusted for amortization of premium over the par or face value, and for the accretion of discount from the par or face value. As a general rule, the premium (discount) on each security purchased should be amortized (accreted) over the life of the security; that is, from date of purchase to maturity of the security.

If the amount of the monthly amortization (accretion) for a given security is immaterial, the reporting institution may, at its option, omit the monthly calculation and booking of amortization (accretion). If the reporting institution chooses that option, then, for a security purchased at a premium, the reporting institution shall take the full amount of the amortization of the premium at the time of purchase (and the security will be reported in this schedule at par or face value for the period it remains on the books of the reporting institution); for a security purchased at a discount, the reporting institution shall take the full amount of the discount at the time of maturity or sale of the security (and the security will be reported in this schedule at cost for the period it remains on the books). Amortized cost of securities with derivative hedges should be reported at net.

B Held-to-maturity—Fair value.

Report in this column the fair value of holdings of securities classified as held-to-maturity, as authorized by regulation, as of the close of business on the report date. As defined in ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (formerly FASB Statement No. 157, Fair Value Measurements), fair value is “the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.”

The fair value of securities held-to-maturity should be determined, to the extent possible, by timely reference to the best available source of current market quotations or other data on relative current values. For example, securities traded on national, regional, or foreign exchanges or in organized over-the-counter markets should be valued at the most recently available quotation in the most active market. Holdings of securities held-to-maturity for which no organized market exists should be valued on the basis of a yield curve estimate. Quotations from brokers or others making markets in securities that are neither widely nor actively traded are not acceptable. The fair values of securities with derivative hedges should be reported in accordance with ASC

C    Available-for-sale—Amortized cost.

In column C, report the amortized cost of securities classified as available-for-sale. For securities purchased at other than par or face value, the amortized cost to be reported is the cost of the securities purchased, adjusted for amortization of premium over the par or face value, and for the accretion of discount from the par or face value. As a general rule, the premium (discount) on each security purchased should be amortized (accreted) over the life of the security; that is, from date of purchase to maturity of the security.

If the amount of the monthly amortization (accretion) for a given security is immaterial, the reporting institution may, at its option, omit the monthly calculation and booking of amortization (accretion). If the reporting institution chooses that option, then, for a security purchased at a premium, the reporting institution shall take the full amount of the amortization of the premium at the time of purchase (and the security will be reported in this schedule at par or face value for the period it remains on the books of the reporting institution); for a security purchased at a discount, the reporting institution shall take the full amount of the discount at the time of maturity or sale of the security (and the security will be reported in this schedule at cost for the period it remains on the books). Amortized cost of securities with derivative hedges should be reported at net.

D    Available-for-sale—Fair value.

Report in this column the fair value of holdings of securities classified as available-for-sale, as authorized by regulation, as of the close of business on the report date. As defined in ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (formerly FASB Statement No. 157, Fair Value Measurements), fair value is “the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.”

The fair value of securities available-for-sale should be determined, to the extent possible, by timely reference to the best available source of current market quotations or other data on relative current values. Holdings of detached Treasury coupons and ex-coupon Treasury securities or the rights to CATS, TIGERS, COUGARS, LIONS, and ETRS (other than STRIPS) are to be reported on Schedule RC-B, item 11(a), "Domestic debt securities."

1(b) Other fully insured or guaranteed obligations (i.e., 100% unconditionally guaranteed obligations).

Report in the appropriate columns the amortized cost and fair value of all holdings of other obligations fully insured or guaranteed (i.e., 100% unconditionally guaranteed obligations) by the United States, its agencies, instrumentalities and corporations. Many lenders sell the 100% unconditionally guaranteed portions of USDA and SBA loans to agents who securitize the loans into 100% guaranteed securities for the secondary market. Examples of the underlying loans packaged into these securities may include: SBA

2 U.S. Government Sponsored Agency (GSA) obligations (excluding MBS).

All securities (including the portion of securities that are partially insured or guaranteed) included in Schedule RC-B, items 2(a) and 2(b), are not explicitly backed by the full faith and credit of the United States.

2(a) Fully insured or guaranteed obligations (i.e., 100% unconditionally guaranteed obligations).

Report in the appropriate columns the amortized cost and fair value of obligations (including bonds, notes, and debentures) of U.S. Government sponsored agencies and corporations, such as the Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac), that are fully insured or guaranteed by the agency or corporation and are held by the reporting institution. IDRBs include obligations issued under the auspices of states or political subdivisions for the benefit of a private party or enterprise where that party or enterprise, rather than the government entity, is obligated to pay the principal and interest on the obligation. IDRBs are not full faith and credit obligations, and the obligor is only obligated to pay a portion of the revenue generated by the project or enterprise to the bondholders.

3(d) Other.

Report in the appropriate columns the amortized cost and fair value of all holdings of Municipal obligations other than those described in Schedule RC-B, items 3(a) through 3(c), above.

Include both those that mature in one business day or that roll over under a continuing contract ("pure Fed funds") and those that mature in more than one business day ("term Fed funds") with a contract that is continuously callable up to 100 days. Immediately available funds are funds that the borrowing ("purchasing") bank can either use or dispose of on the same business day that the transaction, giving rise to the receipt or disposal of the funds, is executed. Exclude from this item any advances that are not immediately available to the reporting institution or any advances that are secured under resale agreements or any similar agreement. Such items are to be reported in Schedule RC-B, items 11(a) or 11(b), below, as applicable.

Master Notes means interest-bearing unsecured promissory notes that are issued by an institution to investors under a master note agreement. 5(g) Securities purchased under resale agreements.

Report in the appropriate columns the amortized cost and fair value of advances of funds in the form of purchases of securities under agreements to resell and similar transactions. Include both those that mature in 1 business day or are under a continuing contract and those that mature in more than 1 business day. Include all such transactions whether or not they are immediately available funds. Also include in this item purchases of participations in pools of securities.

Securities sold by the reporting institution under agreements to repurchase are not to be treated as sales in reporting holdings of securities. Securities so "sold" are to be included in the reporting of holdings of securities by the "seller." (Such transactions should be treated as a borrowing by the selling institution and should be reflected in the reporting of a liability in Schedule RC, item 14, "Other liabilities"). Sales of participations in pools of securities held by the reporting institution are to be treated in the same fashion—the securities in which participations have been sold are reported as remaining on the books of the seller and the transaction is reflected as an item in “Other liabilities.”

Similarly, securities purchased by the reporting institution under agreements to resell (and purchases of participations in pools of securities) are not to be reported under holdings of securities, e.g., in items 1, 2, and 3 of Schedule RC-B, but are to be reported in Schedule RC-B, item 5(g).

A resale agreement (also known as a reverse repurchase agreement) is a transaction involving the purchase of assets by one party from another, subject to an agreement by the purchaser to resell the assets at a specified date or in specified circumstances. Such transactions are treated as lending operations and do not affect the reported amounts of the holdings of the securities purchased and resold. Purchases of participations in pools of securities are similarly treated; that is, they are to be reported in this item rather than in one of the other items in this schedule.

Report such lending as gross. Do not net against security repurchase agreement liabilities.

6 Diversified mutual funds.

This schedule is intended to serve as a memoranda of the Call Report to identify the amounts of mission related investments (MRI) for the purposes delineated in FCA Informational Memorandums dated June 25, 2004, and January 11, 2005, and authorized under §§ 615.5140(a) 615.5140(e), 615.5172, 615.5174 or FCA Book letters BL-052 and BL-061.

MRI securities (including bonds or similar instruments) prior approved, approved under pilot programs, or authorized under the reporting institution's current investment or incidental authorities that support the institution's MRI program. This includes not only pilot program mission-related investments, but all mission-related investments, including certain investments made under an institution's general investment authorities under §§ 615.5140 and 615.5142 (see, e.g., FCA's Informational Memorandum dated June 30, 2011).

In addition, MRI securities may include rural development projects identified by local, state, tribal, or federal governments or projects in rural areas declared natural disaster areas by the Federal government.

These amounts include securities backed by the guaranteed portion of United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Business and Industry loan(s) and FSA or FmHA loan(s). Amounts on items 1(a) through 1(k) below would not include those loans originated by the reporting institution and guaranteed by the USDA or SBA, only those securities purchased under the institution's investment authority. Further SBA securities purchased under an institution's investment authorities would not be reported, unless there is sufficient documentation to confirm compliance with the institution's MRI program and definition of a rural area.

* Change made effective March 31, 2013

Schedule RC-F
Performance of Loans, Notes, Sales Contracts, and Leases

---

In the schedule, total loans, (principal and accrued interest receivable) are to be reported in the following classifications:

Accruing
Formally restructured accruing
Nonaccrual:
Cash basis
Other

For each of these loan classifications, the schedule requires information to be reported on past due status as follows:

Not past due or past due less than 30 days
Past due 30 through 89 days
Past due 90 days or more

In classifying and reporting loans in any line item of this table, the amount of accrued interest receivable on any loan shall be reported along with the loan. For a nonaccrual loan, this would include the amount of interest accrued (and unpaid) up to the time the loan was shifted to a nonaccrual status, except where the accrual of interest in the calendar year of such a shift was reversed and backed out of net income rather than being carried as accrued interest in nonaccrual status.

Definitions

This section provides the definitions of the terms used above that are necessary for the proper classification and reporting of loans for this schedule. The definitions, for the most part, are taken from FCA Regulations (12 CFR Part 621).

Past due. For purposes of this schedule, a loan is past due when it is contractually past due. A loan is considered contractually past due, under regulation, when any principal repayment or interest payment required by the loan instrument is not received by the lender on or before the due date.

Loans payable in more than one payment, whether in regular installments or otherwise, are past due as of the first day a scheduled, required, or expected payment of principal, interest, or combination of the two due on that day was not received by the lender on or before that day. The entire outstanding principal (including accrued interest where appropriate), not just the amount of the delinquent payment, must be classified and reported as past due.

Schedule RC-F

Demand loans and loans on which a call provision has been activated are past due as of the date that any portion, or all, of the outstanding principal and/or accrued interest has been demanded or otherwise called and payment has not been received by the lender.

A loan classified as past due shall remain so classified until it is formally restructured or until the entire amount delinquent (including principal amounts, accrued interest, and penalty interest incurred by virtue of past due status) is collected or otherwise discharged in full. Past due amounts should include loans in foreclosure and the number of days past due should be based on the time when the loan became delinquent (i.e., not when the loan went into foreclosure).

Nonaccrual loans. A loan shall be considered and reported as a nonaccrual loan if it meets any of the following conditions:

- (1) Collection of any amount of outstanding principal and all past and future interest accruals, considered over the full term of the asset, is not expected; or
- (2) Any portion of the loan has been charged off, except in cases where the prior chargeoff was taken as part of a formal restructuring of the loan; or
- (3) The loan is 90 days past due and is not both adequately secured and in process of collection.

A loan is considered adequately secured if it is secured by real or personal property having a net realizable value sufficient to discharge the debt in full; or it is guaranteed by a financially responsible party in an amount sufficient to discharge the debt in full.

A loan is considered in process of collection only if collection efforts are proceeding in due course and, based on a probable and specific event, are expected to result in the prompt repayment of the debt for its restoration to current status. There must be documented evidence that collection in full of amounts due and unpaid is expected to occur within a reasonable time period, not to exceed 180 days from the date that payment was due. The commencement of collection efforts through legal action, including ongoing workouts and reamortizations, do not, in and of themselves, provide sufficient cause to keep a loan out of nonaccrual status. If full collection of the debt or its restoration to current status is dependent upon completion of any action by the borrower, the institution must obtain the borrower's written agreement to complete all such actions by the specific dates set forth in agreement.

Nonaccrual loans may, at times, be maintained on a cash basis. Generally, cash basis refers to the recognition of interest income from cash payments received on certain nonaccrual loans for which the collectability of the recorded investment in the loan is no longer in doubt.

Schedule RC-F
Performance of Loans, Notes, Sales Contracts, and Leases

Cash payments on nonaccrual loans may be recognized if all the following characteristics are met at the time the payments are received:

- (i) The loan does not have a remaining unrecovered prior chargeoff associated with it, except in cases where a chargeoff was taken prior to a formal debt restructuring;
- (ii) The payment received is from a source detailed in the plan of collection; and
- (iii) The loan, after receipt of the payment, is not contractually past due 90 days and is not expected to again become 90 days past due, or a repayment pattern has been established that reasonably demonstrates future repayment capacity.

Formally restructured accruing loans. These are loans that are “troubled debt restructurings,” as defined in ASC Subtopic 310-40, Troubled Debt Restructurings by Creditors, and ASC Subtopic 470-60, Troubled Debt Restructurings by Debtors (formerly SFAS No. 15, Accounting by Debtors and Creditors for Troubled Debt Restructurings).

After a loan is classified and reported as “formally restructured accruing,” it shall continue to be reported as such in this schedule until it is fully paid off or otherwise discharged, or it once again becomes severely past due under its restructured terms as to be appropriately classified as “nonaccrual” or until such time as the terms are substantially equivalent to terms on which loans with comparable risks are being made. In the latter case, the loan is to be reported as “accruing.”

In reporting a “formally restructured accruing loan,” performance of the restructured loan should be measured since the time of restructuring and with respect to its restructured terms and conditions, not with reference to its performance prior to the restructuring. For example, a loan that was over 90 days past due prior to restructuring (and thus at that time to be reported in column C) would, after restructuring, be reported in column A as not past due as long as it performed in compliance with the restructured terms.

Accruing loans. All loans not properly identifiable as “nonaccrual” or “formally restructured accruing” as defined in these instructions, are accruing loans.

Rule of aggregation. When one loan to a borrower is placed in nonaccrual, an institution must immediately evaluate whether its other loans to that borrower, or related borrowers, should also be placed in nonaccrual status. All loans on which a borrowing entity, or a component of a borrowing entity, is primarily obligated to the reporting institution shall be considered as one loan, unless a review of all pertinent facts supports a reasonable determination that a particular loan constitutes an independent credit risk and such determination is adequately documented in the loan file.

This means that, if the evaluation required above results in a determination that the borrower's other loans with the institution do not represent an independent credit risk, and full collection of such loans is not expected, then all of the loans must be aggregated and classified as nonaccrual.

Column/Line-Item Instructions

Report in item 4 the sum of items 1 through 3 for each of columns A through D. The amount reported in item 4, for column D, must equal the sum of Schedule RC, items 4(a), 4(b), 4(c), 4(d), 4(e), 5(a), 5(b), 5(c), and 5(d). In addition, the total amounts for each category reported in column D, items 1 through 3, must be reconciled to the sum total of principal and accrued interest for all loans reported in Data Element No. 26, "Performance Status," in the Memorandum: Loan Account Reporting System (LARS) in each corresponding category. The reconciliation must be included in an addendum to the institution's Call Report submission.

---

In this schedule, total loans (principal and accrued interest receivable) are to be reported by loan types (defined in RC.1) in the following classifications (defined in RC-F):

- Accruing
- Accruing—past due 90 days or more
- Formally restructured accruing
- Nonaccrual:
  - Cash basis
  - Other.

In classifying and reporting loans in any line item of this schedule, the amount of accrued interest receivable on any loan shall be reported along with the loan. For a nonaccrual loan, this would include the amount of interest accrued (and unpaid) up to the time the loan was shifted to a nonaccrual status, except where the accrual of interest in the calendar year of such a shift was reversed and backed out of net income rather than being carried as accrued interest in nonaccrual status.

Report all the reporting institution's loans, notes receivable, and lease receivables, including accrued interest receivable on these, for each loan type, as defined in RC.1, in the appropriate columns of the schedule, in accordance with the definitions above. Report in Column F the sum of columns A thru E for each line item 1 thru 11. Report in item 12 the sum of items 1 thru 11 for each column A thru E. The amount reported for item 12 in column F must equal the sum of Schedule RC, items 4(a) thru 4(e) plus items 5(a) thru 5(d).

Schedule RC-F2
Performance of Loans, Notes, Sales Contracts, and Leases
Loan Classifications By Loan Type

In this schedule, total loans (principal and accrued interest receivable) are to be reported by loan types (defined in RC.1) and by credit classification.

Credit classifications.

System institutions use asset quality classifications to identify and disclose the degree of risk in the loan portfolio and other assets. The classification system predominately used by System institutions is the Uniform Classification System (UCS). UCS credit classifications are assigned on the basis of certain risk factors and include the following five categories: Acceptable, Other Assets Especially Mentioned, Substandard, Doubtful, and Loss. Assets classified Substandard, Doubtful, and Loss are considered adversely classified assets; assets classified less than Fully Acceptable are considered criticized assets. Assets may also be assigned more than one classification when portions of the asset clearly meet different classification standards. A detailed description and application of each classification category can be found in the FCA Examination Manual.

Each institution must report the following information with respect to credit quality of its loan portfolio and other classified assets. For purposes of this report, an institution should align its credit classification categories as is necessary to best fit within the framework of the UCS. For most System institutions, loans (principal and interest) are the only assets assigned credit classifications. However, there are a number of System institutions that have other types of assets that are routinely assigned credit classifications. For instance, many institutions have collateral securing operating leases that are classified as to risk. Assets other than loans that are classified should be reported in line 11.

Column Instructions

definitions in RC.1. All other assets classified as Other Assets Especially Mentioned should be reported on line 11.

C Substandard

Report the institution's total amount of loans classified as Substandard at the report date for each loan type on lines 1 thru 10 using the definitions in RC.1. All other assets classified Substandard should be reported on line 11.

D Doubtful

Report the institution's total amount of loans classified as Doubtful at the report date for each loan type on lines 1 thru 10 using the definitions in RC.1. All other assets classified Doubtful should be reported on line 11.

E Loss

F Total

Report in Column F the sum of columns A thru E for items 1 through 12. The aggregate of classified assets reported on this line item that represent loans (items 1 thru 10) should generally agree with the sum of amounts reported in Schedule RC, items 4(a) through 4(e) plus 5(a) through 5(d). If the amount reported on this line item does not agree with the sum of amounts reported in Schedule RC, item 4(a) through 4(e) plus 5(a) through 5(d), the difference must be explained (through a reconciliation) in an addendum to the Call Report.

Risk Ratings for Retail Loans, Notes, Sales Contracts, and Leases

Report the total volume of all applicable assets stratified on the assigned Probability of Default (PD) risk rating (rows) and Loss Given Default (LGD) risk rating (columns) as of the reporting date. Additional instructions:

- Refer to the Farm Credit System’s Combined System Risk Rating Guidance for definitions of the 14-point PD risk rating scale and the six-tier LGD risk rating scale. (In general, the PD rating reflects a borrower’s probability of default and the LGD rating reflects the anticipated loss exposure on a specific obligation assuming a default occurs.)
- For FCS banks, the amounts reported in this schedule should exclude “direct loans” extended to FCS associations, which are instead reported in Schedule RC-F4. The amounts reported in this schedule should also exclude “OFI loans” extended to other financial institutions, which are instead reported in Schedule RC-F5.
- The reported amounts should include the book value of outstanding principal and accrued interest receivable. The amount reported in item 15G must match the sum of amounts reported in Schedule RC, items 4(a) through 4(e) plus 5(a) through 5(d) less Schedule RC-F2 item 9F and item 10F. If these amounts do not agree, the difference must be explained (through a reconciliation) in an addendum to the Call Report.

Schedule RC-F4
Risk Ratings for Direct Loans from FCS Banks to FCS Associations

This schedule is only applicable to FCS banks.

Report the total volume of “direct loans” extended to FCS associations by the assigned Probability of Default (PD) risk rating as of the reporting date. Additional instructions:

- Refer to the Farm Credit System’s Combined System Risk Rating Guidance for definitions of the 14-point PD risk rating scale. (In general, the PD rating reflects a borrower’s probability of default.)
- The reported amounts should include the book value of outstanding principal and accrued interest receivable.
- The amount reported in item 15 must match the amount reported in Schedule RC-F2 item 9F (direct loans extended to FCS associations).

Schedule RC-F5

- Refer to the Farm Credit System’s Combined System Risk Rating Guidance for definitions of the 14-point PD risk rating scale. (In general, the PD rating reflects a borrower’s probability of default.)
- The reported amounts should include the book value of outstanding principal and accrued interest receivable.
- The amount reported in item 15 must match the amount reported in Schedule RC-F2 item 10F (Discounted loans to OFIs).

Schedule RC-G Average Daily Amounts for the Quarter

General Instructions

This schedule requires the reporting of daily averages over the reporting quarter period for selected groupings and detail of assets, liabilities, and net worth.

For items on the schedule, report the averages of the balances called for as of the close of business for each business day for the calendar quarter. Include nonbusiness days (e.g., weekends or holidays) in the computation of the average daily balance. Accordingly, the computation will be computed based on the actual days in each quarter (e.g., the sum of the asset item's ending day balance for each actual day in the quarter divided by the actual number of days will equal the average daily balance for the asset item).

In general, the main focus of the schedule is on interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities. However, item 6, "Nonaccrual loans," is noninterest earning; item 13, "Total assets," and item 18, "Total liabilities," include both noninterest-earning and noninterest-bearing components; and item 22, "Total net worth," is noninterest bearing.

Line-Item Instructions

For each of the items described below, report the appropriate average balance.

Schedule RC-H Reconciliation of Net Worth

General Instructions

This schedule covers the detailed reporting of the net worth section of the institution's balance sheet. The schedule is divided into four parts consisting of a section on capital stock, a section on earned surplus, a section on accumulated other comprehensive income, and a section with memoranda items. The capital stock section requires all institutions to report the par amount of capital stock, participation certificates, preferred stock, the book amount of paid-in capital, and total net capital stock.

The earned surplus section requires all institutions to report the book amount of allocated surplus, undistributed earnings (unallocated surplus), and total earned surplus. The accumulated other comprehensive income section requires all institutions to report the book amount of accumulated other comprehensive income and total net worth. The memoranda section requires all institutions to report allocated equities of a bank allotted to others and allocated equities included in core surplus and unqualified written notice of allocation included in unallocated surplus.

Each reporting institution should review its current bylaws that pertain to the institution's net worth. Even though each reporting institution's bylaws will vary regarding the composition of its net worth, every effort has been made to provide a uniform reporting format that can accommodate different types of net worth structures. In the event a reporting institution does not believe the structure of its net worth, or a specific category, conforms to the structure provided by these instructions, the institution is required to immediately contact the Compliance Officer, Office of Management Services, for further interpretive instructions and/or clarification. Each institution is required to complete this Schedule RC-H, Reconciliation of Net Worth.

Each reporting institution should also review section 4.9A, "Protection of Borrower Stock," of the Act before beginning to complete this schedule. As referenced above, the amounts reported on this schedule require the institution to differentiate between capital stock, participation certificates, and allocated surplus that is protected under section 4.9A and those amounts that are not protected under this section of the Act.

At the end of the fiscal year, many institutions distribute earnings to their stockholders in the form of patronage. These distributions of patronage are routinely made through allocations of capital stock, and allocated equities and payments in cash. As in all areas of the Call Report, accrual accounting should be followed. Therefore, if it is the institution's intention (or where it is imposed by bylaws) to distribute earnings (i.e., patronage, dividends) at the end of the fiscal year, accruals for such distributions must be made in interim reports when they are considered material.

Item No.	Caption and Instructions
5(b)	Noncumulative Perpetual. Report the par amount of noncumulative perpetual preferred stock outstanding not held by another FCS bank or association. Perpetual preferred stock is any class of capital stock that has no stated maturity date and provides the investor with some preference relative to other classes of capital stock with respect to the payment of dividends, in the event of bankruptcy or liquidation, or some other feature. Noncumulative is where the issuer has the option to waive payment of dividends and where the dividends so waived do not accumulate to future periods nor do they represent a contingent claim on the issuer.
5(c)	Other (explain in an addendum). Report the par amount of other classes of preferred stock outstanding that are not reportable in line items 5(a) and 5(b), including cumulative and term preferred stock held by an FCS bank or association or others that is included in net worth in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. This category should also include continually redeemable preferred stock issued to members which the institution generally plans to redeem at the request of the member. The addendum should identify the class of the preferred stock and, except for stock issued to members, list the par amount held by each investor, if the investor is identifiable.
6	Paid-in capital. Report the amount of outstanding paid-in capital, surplus, etc. (other than capital stock) that either has been provided by member-borrowers, Farm Credit institutions, and others or has been accumulated by other transactions that are appropriately accounted for as paid-in capital. The most common transaction resulting in paid-in capital is amounts paid in excess of par for the institution's capital stock when issued. Amounts representing financial assistance from other Farm Credit institutions in the form of paid-in surplus are to be reported on this line.
7	Total. Report the total amount of capital stock outstanding. The total reported should be the sum of items 1, 2(c), 3, 4, 5(a) to 5(c) and 6. The total must equal Schedule RC, item 16.

Under this provision, institutions must accrue, on a timely basis (at least quarterly), patronage refunds expected to be paid when (1) it is probable that a patronage refund applicable to the period will be declared, (2) the amount of the refund can be reasonably estimated, and (3) the accruals can be consistently made from year to year.

1	Standby letters of credit.

Report, in sub-item (a) or (b), as appropriate, the amount outstanding and unused as of the report date of all standby letters of credit (and all legally binding commitments to issue standby letters of credit) issued by the reporting institution.

A standby letter of credit is a letter of credit that:

- (a) Represents an obligation on the part of the issuing institution to a designated third party (the beneficiary) contingent upon the failure of the issuing institution's customer (the account party) to perform under the terms of the underlying contract with the beneficiary; or
- (b) Obligates the issuing institution to guarantee or stand as surety for the benefit of a third party to the extent permitted by law or regulation.

The underlying contract may entail either financial or nonfinancial undertakings of the account party with the beneficiary. The underlying contract may involve such things as the customer's payment of commercial credit, completion of a construction contract, or repayment of the account party's obligation to the beneficiary.

Under the terms of a standby letter, as a general rule, the beneficiary is authorized to draw drafts on the issuing institution (up to a stipulated amount and with specified terms and conditions) only when the underlying event fails to occur as intended.

The reporting institution must report in item 1 the full amount outstanding and unused of the standby letters of credit issued where the reporting issuing institution is obligated to pay the full amount of any draft drawn, even if it has conveyed participations to others. The gross amount must be reported even though under the terms of the standby letter the participating institutions have an obligation to partially or wholly reimburse the issuing institution either directly in cash or through a participation in a loan to the account party.

The reporting institution must also report in item 1 the full amount of its commitment under any participations (such as those described in the previous paragraph) conveyed to it in standby letters without deducting any amounts that it may have re-participated to others.

For syndicated standby letters of credit in which each institution has a direct obligation to the beneficiary, each institution must report only its share in the syndication. Similarly, if several institutions participate in the issuance of a standby letter of credit under a bona fide binding agreement that provides that each participant, regardless of any event, shall be liable only up to a certain percentage or to a certain amount and the beneficiary has been so advised and has agreed, then each participating institution shall report only its proportional share of the total standby letter of credit.

1(a) U.S. addressees.

Report in this sub-item the amount of standby letters of credit (as defined in item 1) issued for account parties with U.S. addresses (i.e., domiciled in the United States). Note that the distinction between U.S. and non-U.S. addressees is determined by the domicile of the account party (the institution's customer) not the domicile of the beneficiary.

1(b) Non-U.S. addressees.

Report in this sub-item the amount of standby letters of credit (as defined in item 1) issued for account parties with non-U.S. addresses (i.e., domiciled outside the United States).

2 Commercial and other letters of credit.

Report in this item the amount outstanding and unused as of the report date of commercial and other letters of credit issued or confirmed by the reporting institution.

A commercial letter of credit is a document specifically related to trade or commerce issued by a financial institution on behalf of its customer (the account party) authorizing a third party (the beneficiary) to draw drafts on the issuing institution up to a stipulated amount and with specified terms and conditions upon consummation of the transaction underlying the letter. The letter of credit is a conditional commitment on the part of the issuing institution to provide payments on such drafts drawn in accordance with the terms of the document.

3 Gross amounts (notional) of derivatives.

Report in the appropriate sub-item the gross par value (for futures, forwards, and option contracts) or notional amount (for forward rate agreements and swaps), as appropriate, of all derivatives.

The notional amount or par value to be reported for derivative or synthetic contract with a multiplier component is the contract's effective notional amount or par value. For example, a swap contract with a stated notional amount of $1,000,000 whose terms call for quarterly settlement of the difference between 5 percent and LIBOR multiplied by 10 has an effective notional amount of $10,000,000.

Derivative products used in the System are typically characterized as "Interest Rate Contracts" related to an interest-bearing financial instrument or whose cash flows are determined by referencing interest rates or another interest rate contract (e.g., an option on a futures contract to purchase a Treasury bill). These contracts are generally used to adjust an institution's interest rate risk exposure. Interest rate contracts include interest rate futures, single currency interest rate swaps, basis swaps, forward rate agreements, and interest rate options, including caps, floors, collars, and corridors.

In addition to "Interest Rate Contracts" as defined above, derivative contracts can include foreign exchange contracts, commodity contracts, or equity contracts. If such contracts are included, institutions must attach an addendum explaining such usage.

No netting of contracts is permitted. Do not net: (1) obligations of the reporting entity to purchase from third parties against the bank's obligation to sell to third parties; (2) written options against purchased options; or (3) contracts subject to bilateral netting agreements.

Do not report transactions involving (1) "regular way" settlements, that is, cash market transactions that are settled in one business day for U.S. Treasury and Government agency and corporation securities (other than Government-guaranteed mortgage pass-through certificates); (2) 5 business days for municipal and corporate securities; and (3) up to 60 days for mortgage-backed securities. Cash market transactions with settlement periods that exceed regular way settlement time limits must be reported as forward contracts in Schedule RC-I, item 3(b).

Schedule RC-I
Commitments, Contingencies, and Other Items (cont'd)
Line-Item Instructions

---

Associations must explain any derivative entries in an addendum. The addendum must describe each type of derivative reported by the counterparty. For each item listed in the addendum, the association should also report the term, market value, duration, and purpose of the derivative.

3(a) Futures contracts.

Futures contracts represent agreements for delayed delivery of financial instruments or commodities in which the buyer agrees to purchase and the seller agrees to deliver, at a specified future date, a specified instrument at a specified price or yield. Futures contracts are standardized and are traded on organized exchanges that act as the counterparty to each contract. Report the aggregate par value of futures contracts that have been entered into by the reporting institution and are outstanding (i.e., open contracts) as of the report date.

Contracts are outstanding (i.e., open) until they have been canceled by acquisition or delivery of the underlying financial instrument or by offset. Offset is the liquidating of a purchase of futures through the sale of an equal number of contracts of the same delivery month on the same underlying instrument, or the covering of a short sale of futures through the purchase of an equal number of contracts of the same delivery month on the same underlying instrument.

Some of the more common interest rate futures contracts include futures on 90-day U.S. Treasury bills; 12-year GNMA pass-through securities; and 2-, 4-, and 10-year U.S. Treasury notes.

Note: Foreign exchange, commodity, and other futures, other than for interest rate risk, should also be included in this sub-item. If such contracts are included, institutions must attach an addendum explaining such usage.

3(b) Forward contracts.

Forward contracts represent agreements for delayed delivery of financial instruments or commodities in which the buyer agrees to purchase and the seller agrees to deliver, at a specified future date, a specified instrument or commodity at a specified price or yield. In contrast to futures contracts, forward contracts are not traded on organized exchanges and their contractual terms are not standardized. Report the aggregate par value of forward contracts that have been entered into by the reporting institution and are outstanding (i.e., open contracts) as of the report date.

Forward contracts are outstanding (i.e., open) until they have been canceled by acquisition or delivery of the underlying financial instruments or settled in cash. Such contracts can only be terminated, other than by receipt of the underlying asset, by agreement of both buyer and seller.

Schedule RC-I
Commitments, Contingencies, and Other Items (cont'd)
Line-Item Instructions

---

It is anticipated that the risk characteristic of forward contracts used by System institutions is interest rate risk wherein the institution is committing to purchase or sell financial instruments. If forward contracts reported in this sub-item have other risk characteristics (e.g., foreign exchange risks, commodity risks, and other risks), institutions must report such usage in an addendum.

3(c) Exchange traded option contracts.

Options contracts convey either the right or the obligation, depending upon whether the reporting institution is the purchaser or the writer, respectively, to buy or sell a financial instrument or commodity at a specified price by a specified future date. Some options are traded on organized exchanges.

The buyer of an option contract has, for compensation (such as a fee or premium), acquired the right (or option) to sell to, or purchase from, another party some financial instrument or commodity at a stated price on a specified future date. The seller of the contract has, for such compensation, become obligated to purchase or sell the financial instrument or commodity at the option of the buyer of the contract. A put option contract obligates the seller of the contract to purchase some financial instrument or commodity at the option of the buyer of the contract. A call option contract obligates the seller of the contract to sell some financial instrument or commodity at the option of the buyer of the contract.

It is anticipated that the risk characteristic of exchange-traded options used by System institutions is interest rate risk wherein the institution is committing to purchase or sell financial instruments. If options reported in this sub-item have other risk characteristics (e.g., foreign exchange risks, commodity risks, and other risks), institutions must describe such usage in an addendum.

3(c)(i) Written options.

Report in this sub-item the aggregate par value of the financial instruments or commodities that the reporting institution has, for compensation (such as a fee or premium), obligated itself to either purchase or sell under exchange-traded option contracts that are outstanding as of the report date. For exchange-traded option contracts obligating the reporting institution to either purchase or sell an interest rate futures contract, report the par value of the financial instrument underlying the futures contract. An example of such a contract is a Chicago Board Options Exchange option on the 13-week Treasury bill rate.

Schedule RC-I
Commitments, Contingencies, and Other Items (cont'd)
Line-Item Instructions

Note: Attach an addendum describing any options that involve foreign exchange, commodity, or risk characteristics other than interest rate risk.

3(c)(ii) Purchased options.

Report in this sub-item the aggregate par value of the financial instruments or commodities that the reporting institution has, for a fee or premium, purchased the right to either purchase or sell under exchange-traded option contracts that are outstanding as of the report date. For exchange-traded option contracts giving the reporting institution the right to either purchase or sell an interest rate futures contract, report the par value of the financial instrument underlying the futures contract. An example of such a contract is a Chicago Board Options Exchange option on the 13-week Treasury bill rate.

Note: Attach an addendum describing any options that involve foreign exchange, commodity, or risk characteristics other than interest rate risk.

3(d) Over the counter option contracts.

Options contracts convey either the right or the obligation, depending upon whether the reporting institution is the purchaser or the writer, respectively, to buy or sell a financial instrument or commodity at a specified price by a specified future date. Options can be written to meet the specialized needs of the counterparties to the transactions. These customized option contracts are known as over-the-counter (OTC) options. Thus, OTC option contracts include all option contracts not traded on an organized exchange.

The buyer of an option contract has, for compensation (such as a fee or premium), acquired the right (or option) to sell to, or purchase from, another party some financial instrument or commodity at a stated price on a specified future date. The seller of the contract has, for such compensation, become obligated to purchase or sell the financial instrument or commodity at the option of the buyer of the contract. A put option contract obligates the seller of the contract to purchase some financial instrument or commodity at the option of the buyer of the contract. A call option contract obligates the seller of the contract to sell some financial instrument or commodity at the option of the buyer of the contract.

In addition, “swaptions” (i.e., options to enter into a swap contract) and contracts known as caps, floors, collars, and corridors should be reported as options. Options, such as a call feature, that are embedded in loans, securities, and other on-balance sheet assets and liabilities are not to be reported in Schedule RC-I. Commitments to lend are not considered options for purposes of Schedule RC-I, item 3, but should be reported in Schedule RC-I, item 6.

Schedule RC-I
Commitments, Contingencies, and Other Items (cont'd)
Line-Item Instructions

---

It is anticipated that the risk characteristic of OTC options used by System institutions is interest rate risk wherein the institution is committing to purchase or sell financial instruments. If options reported in this sub-item have other risk characteristics (e.g., foreign exchange risks, commodity risks, and other risks), institutions should describe such usage in an addendum.

3(d)(i) Written options.

Report in this sub-item the aggregate par value of the financial instruments or commodities that the reporting institution has, for compensation (such as a fee or premium), obligated itself to either purchase or sell under OTC option contracts that are outstanding as of the report date. Also include the aggregate notional amount for written caps, floors, and swaptions and for the written portion of collars and corridors. Do not include embedded options that are not considered a derivative under GAAP.

Include in this item the notional principal amount for interest rate caps and floors that the reporting bank sells. For collars and corridors, report a notional amount for the written portion of the contract in Schedule RC-I, item 3(d)(i) and for the purchased portion of the contract in Schedule RC-I, item 3(d)(ii). An interest rate collar, therefore, should be reported as the sale of a floor and the purchase of a cap.

Caps and floors are often referred to as a series of options. However, the notional amounts reported should not be “grossed up.” The notional amount reported for caps and floors is the principal amount upon which payments would be based as of the reporting date if rates had risen above or fallen below the strike price.

Note: Attach an addendum describing any options that involve foreign exchange, commodity, or risk characteristics other than interest rate risk.

3(d)(ii) Purchased options.

Report in this sub-item the aggregate par value of the financial instruments or commodities that the reporting institution has, for compensation (such as a fee or premium), purchased the right to either purchase or sell under OTC option contracts that are outstanding as of the report date. Also include the aggregate notional amount for purchased caps, floors, and swaptions and for the purchased portion of collars and corridors.

Include in this item the notional principal amount for interest rate caps and floors that the reporting bank purchases. For collars and corridors, report a notional amount for the written portion of the contract in Schedule RC-I, item 3(d)(i) and for the purchased portion of the contract in Schedule RC-I, item 3(d)(ii). rate collar, therefore, should be reported as the sale of a floor and the purchase of a cap.

Caps and floors are often referred to as a series of options. However, the notional amounts reported should not be “grossed up.” The notional amount reported for a cap and floor is the principal amount upon which payments would be based as of the reporting date if rates had risen above or fallen below the strike price.

Note: Attach an addendum describing any options that involve foreign exchange, commodity, or risk characteristics other than interest rate risk.

3(e) Swaps.

Swaps are transactions in which two parties agree to exchange payment streams based on a specified notional amount for a specified period. Forward starting swap contracts should be reported as swaps. The notional amount of a swap is the underlying principal amount upon which the exchange of interest, foreign exchange, or other income or expense is based. The notional amount to be reported for a swap contract with a multiplier component is the contract’s effective notional amount.

3(e)(i) Cross-currency swaps.

Report the notational amount of all cross-currency swaps executed in response to the issuance of foreign currency denominated debt as part of the System’s Global Debt Program.

3(e)(ii) Interest rate swaps.

Report the notional amount of interest rate swaps executed by the reporting institution.

3(e)(iii) Other swaps.

Report the notional amount of all other swaps not included in sub-items i or ii.

3(f) Total notional amount of derivative contracts.

Report the total of items 3a through 3e.

3(g) Collateralized derivative and other synthetic contracts.

Report the total amount from item 3(f) that is subject to collateral agreements, whether or not collateral is currently posted by either party.

4 Gross fair values of derivative and other synthetic contracts.

Report in the appropriate sub-item below the fair (market) value of all derivative and other synthetic contracts reported on Schedule RC-I, item 3(f). Report the gross positive and gross negative fair values separately. Other than netting the pay and receive side of individual swap contracts with bilateral netting agreements, no other netting is permitted. Therefore, do not net (1) obligations of the reporting institution to buy against the institution's obligations to sell; (2) written options against purchased options; or (3) positive fair values against negative fair values.

Report as fair value the amount at which a contract could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than a forced liquidation sale. If a quoted market price is available for a contract, the fair value to be reported for that contract is the product of the number of trading units of the contract multiplied by that market price. If a quoted market price is not available, report the bank's best estimate of fair value based on the quoted market price of a similar contract or on valuation techniques such as discounted cash flows.

For purposes of item 4, institutions should determine the fair value of its derivative and synthetic contracts in the same manner that it determines fair value of these contracts for other financial reporting purposes. For example, for interest rate swaps, fair value may include accrued net settlement amounts which have not been paid or received. Otherwise, do not combine, aggregate, or net the reported fair value with the fair or book value of any other derivative asset or liability.

4(a) Gross positive fair values.

Report the total of the gross positive fair value of contracts included in RC-I, item 3f.

4(b) Gross negative fair values.

Report the total of the gross negative fair values of contracts included in RC-I, item 3f.

5(a) Unrecorded liability for obligations of the Farm Credit System Financial Assistance Corporation—section 6.9(e)(3)(D) of the Act.

Section 6.9(e)(3)(D) of the Act states that "Until each obligation issued in accordance with this subsection reaches maturity, for financial reporting purposes, such obligation shall be considered to be the sole obligation of the FAC and shall not be considered a liability of any System bank."

Report in this item the unrecorded liability the institution would have recorded if not for this provision in the Act. This line item is applicable only to System banks (ACBs and FCBs).

5(b) Unrecorded liability for obligations for other post-retirement benefits.

Report in this item the amount of any remaining unrecognized transition obligations determined as a result of applying the provisions of ASC Topic 715,

6      Commitments to extend credit or to participate in arrangements to extend credit.

Report in sub-items 6(a) or 6(b), as appropriate, the unused portions of commitments that, as of the close of business on the report date, obligate the reporting institution to extend credit in the form of loans, notes, sales contracts, and lease receivables or in the form of participations in such extensions of credit.

Commitment means a legally binding obligation to extend credit, enter into lease financing, purchase or participate in loans or leases, or pay the obligation of another, which becomes effective at the time such commitment is made, as set forth in 12 CFR 614.4350(b).

In the case of commitments for syndicated loans or participated loans, report only the reporting institution's proportional share of the commitment.

Include loan proceeds that the reporting institution is obligated to advance, such as loan draws, construction progress payments, seasonal or living advances to farmers under prearranged lines of credit, rotating or revolving credit arrangements, etc.

* For Farm Credit Banks, amounts reported in items 6(a) and 6(b) should exclude unfunded commitments on direct loans to associations, but should include any unfunded commitments to Other Financing Institutions.

6(b)      Commitments on loans not yet booked.

Report in this sub-item the reporting institution's commitments, as defined above, to extend credit in the form of loans not yet booked as of the report date.

7      Volume of asset exposures serviced for other entities

Report in sub-items 7(a) and 7(b) the "outstanding principal balance" and "total commitment," respectively, for the volume of assets serviced (but not owned) by the reporting entity for other entities. Common servicing activities include: customer billing; collecting payments, escrow responsibilities, distributing loan payments to others, customer contact, customer monitoring, etc. For the purpose of these reporting items, serviced assets include:

Schedule RC-J Collateral Position

General Instructions

Schedule RC-J is applicable to banks only. The schedule includes the following sections:

Available Collateral - contains the various components of available collateral as defined by 12 CFR 615.5050;

Net Collateral - contains the adjustments to available collateral to arrive at net collateral as defined by 12 CFR 615.5301(c);

Indebtedness Requiring Collateralization - contains the components of indebtedness requiring collateralization by 12 CFR 615.5050;

Collateral Positions - contains the amount of excess collateral (as defined by 12 CFR 615.5050); net collateral amount (as defined by 12 CFR 615.5301 and 12 CFR 615.5050); and the net collateral ratio (as defined by 12 CFR 615.5301(d)).

Several of the individual line items on Schedule RC-J must equal line items or combinations of line items on Schedule RC. Therefore, reporting institutions should complete Schedule RC prior to completing Schedule RC-J.

The Farm Credit Act of 1971, as amended, and 12 CFR 615.5050, 5060, and 5090 require each bank to maintain sufficient collateral (available collateral as reported in item 11 of this schedule) for all of its secured debt obligations (items requiring collateralization as reported in line 19 of this schedule).

Under the requirements of 12 CFR 615.5050(a) each bank shall have on hand at the time of issuance of any notes, bonds, debentures, or other similar obligations, and at all times thereafter maintain, free from any lien or other pledge, assets consisting of notes and other obligations representing loans made under the authority of the Act, real or personal property acquired in connection with loans made under the Act, obligations of the United States or any agency thereof direct or fully guaranteed, other bank assets (including securities) approved by the Farm Credit Administration, cash, or cash equivalents approved by the Farm Credit Administration, in an aggregate value equal to the total amount of notes, bonds, debentures, or other similar obligations outstanding for which the bank is primarily liable. The regulations also establish:

- The collateral value of eligible investments (as defined in 12 CFR 615.5140) as the lower of cost or market value.

Schedule RC-J
Collateral Position (cont'd)

- The collateral value of notes and other obligations representing loans made under the authority of any Farm Credit Act shall be the unpaid balance of such loans adjusted for any allowance for loan losses (except as provided for in 12 CFR 615.5090).
- The collateral value of loans in process of liquidation or foreclosure, judgments, and sales contracts shall be the unpaid balance of such loans, judgments, and contracts adjusted for any allowance for losses.
- The collateral value of loans which have been restructured by any action, such as an extension, deferment, or partial release, shall be the new unpaid balance of the loans adjusted for any allowance for losses.
- The collateral value of property acquired in the liquidation of loans shall be the book value of such property.
- Collateral shall not include the amount of any loan that exceeds the maximum amount authorized under the Act or part 614 of the regulations.
- Collateral may include the collateral value of secured interbank loans, computed as provided in 12 CFR 615.5050(c)(1), provided that the assets securing the loan could serve as collateral supporting the issuance of obligations under 12 CFR 615.5050(a). In computing its eligible collateral, the borrowing bank shall not count the assets securing such loan.
- Each bank shall have procedures which will ensure that the bank is in compliance with the statutory requirements for maintenance of collateral.

Amounts representing secured borrowings under repurchase agreements are to be reported as obligations requiring collateralization. Similarly, amounts that represent collateral used to secure borrowings under such agreements are to be reported as available collateral to the extent that the amount being reported for each individual transaction does not exceed the amount of the obligation that it secures.

FCA regulation 12 CFR 615.5301 defines net collateral (reported in item 14 of this schedule) as meaning the value of a bank's collateral (as defined by 12 CFR 615.5050 except that eligible investments as described in 12 CFR 615.5140 are to be valued at their amortized cost), less an amount equal to that portion of the allocated investments of affiliated associations that is not counted as permanent capital by the bank.

Under the requirements of 12 CFR 615.5335 each bank shall achieve and at all times maintain a net collateral ratio (reported on item 22 of this schedule) of at least 103 percent. At a minimum, a bank shall compute its net collateral ratio as of the end of each month. A bank shall have the capability to compute its net collateral ratio a day after the close of a business day using the daily balances outstanding for assets and liabilities for that date.

Line-Item Instructions

Item No.      Caption and Instructions

Available Collateral

1              Gross loan items.

Report the net amount of loans available for collateral. This amount must equal the sum of the amounts from Schedule RC, items 4(a) through 4(e) plus items 5(a) through 5(d). Accordingly, this total equals all principal and accrued interest receivable on loans, notes, sales contracts, nonaccrual loans, and other assets appropriately classified as loans and eligible for collateral.

2              Less: Excess loans.

Report the amount of excess loans. For collateral reporting purposes, loans must be valued under the requirements of 12 CFR 615.5050(c)(5). This provision states that collateral shall not include the amount of any loan that exceeds the maximum amount authorized under the Act or part 614 of the Regulations (i.e., lending limit violations per 12 CFR 614.4352 and loan to value requirements per 12 CFR 614.4200(b)).

In order to properly compute excess loan amounts, any excess amount should be reduced to the extent that a specific (GAAP) allowance has been established on this same loan. For example, assume that a bank has a re-amortized loan with a new outstanding principal balance of $100,000. The primary security backing the loan has a current market value of $80,000. The bank has established a $20,000 specific (GAAP) allowance on this loan for financial reporting purposes. Because the loan has undergone a servicing action, for collateral reporting purposes, the loan must be valued under the provisions of 12 CFR 615.5050(c)(5).

Accordingly, the value of this loan that may be reported as collateral is 85 percent of the $80,000 appraised value of the primary security, or $68,000 ($80,000 x 0.85). The $32,000 difference ($100,000 new loan balance minus $68,000) between the unpaid principal balance of the loan and the new carrying value would normally be reported as a reduction to collateral in the form of an excess loan.

However, because this loan has a $20,000 specific allowance, the $20,000 specific allowance should be used to offset the excess loan amount such that only $12,000 ($32,000 minus $20,000) of the excess should be reflected as a reduction to collateral in the form of an excess loan. The purpose of this adjustment is to minimize the effects of "double counting" resulting from regulatory requirements.

Schedule RC-N.1 Repricing Opportunities and Relationships

General Instructions

Schedule RC-N.1 must be reported by all banks and specific associations as determined by FCS examination teams.

This schedule requires the reporting of the distribution of the reporting institution's total interest-earning assets and total interest-bearing liabilities (in asset and liability categories specified by the line-item captions of the schedule), by the length of time from the report date to the date of the next re-pricing of the instrument, or from the report date to maturity if the instrument does not re-price.

The schedule has three parts. Part I covers all interest-earning assets of the reporting institution as of the report date; part II covers all interest-bearing liabilities of the reporting institution as of the report date; and part III covers the off-balance sheet items which create synthetic assets or liabilities.

In each part, the line-item captions designate types of assets, liabilities, or synthetic/derivatives and the kind of information required about them; and column captions designate the breakdown of time periods for the length of time from the report date to the first re-pricing opportunity for floating-rate instruments or to maturity date for fixed-rate instruments.

Institutions should report assets, liabilities, and synthetics in the re-pricing interval that is consistent with the institutions' own assumptions as reported to their ALCO or board. Rather than basing the entries to the schedule solely on the contractual terms and conditions applicable to the items covered, the institutions should incorporate their current prepayment assumptions into this schedule. FCA expects institutions to use reasonable assumptions that are consistent with those reported to ALCOs, senior management, and board members for other risk-measurement purposes.

Synthetic transactions involve derivative instruments that effectively change the maturity/re-pricing or interest rate structure of a reporting institution's assets or liabilities. Derivative instruments that do not change the maturity/re-pricing structure of the reporting institution's assets or liabilities or do not have an effect on the weighted average interest rate of assets or liabilities on the report date are not pertinent to this schedule and should not be reported under synthetic transactions.

Derivative (synthetic) transactions that are directly tied to assets or liabilities can be netted into the asset or liability sections. For example, if an institution issues 2-year debt and swaps the debt payments into a floating rate payment stream (3-month LIBOR, for example), the institution may report the transactions in part II of the schedule under the "over 1 month through 6 months" column. The impact of the synthetic transaction on the effective interest rate of the asset or liability must be reflected in column G (Weighted Average Rate).

Schedule RC-N.1
Repricing Opportunities and Relationships (cont'd)

---

Weighted average interest rate refers to the average annual effective interest rate at which interest accrues as of the report date on the assets or liabilities whose rates are being averaged, where the individual rates are weighted by the dollar amounts of the instruments to which they apply. The weighted average rate for any group of assets or liabilities may be calculated by multiplying the appropriate dollar value of each instrument in the group by the annual effective rate at which interest is accruing on the report date on that instrument; summing the dollar estimates calculated for all instruments in the group; and then dividing that sum by the aggregate dollar value of all the instruments included in the group. For purposes of this schedule, the calculation of average interest rates is to be carried to four decimal places and so reported; for example, 8-2/3 percent would be reported as "00.0867."

Column Instructions

The captions of columns A through E (for parts I, II, and III) provide the time-period specifications for reporting assets and liabilities in terms of the time from report date to maturity or to the next repricing opportunity. Distribute the book value of the interest-earning assets (part I), interest-bearing liabilities (part II), and derivative and other synthetic items (part III) specified in the line captions in accordance with the definitions and instructions above and the column instructions below.

Column      Caption and Instructions

- B            Over 1 month and through 6 months.
Report in this column those assets, liabilities, or synthetic transactions with an original maturity or assumed re-pricing or prepayment of over 1 month and through 6 months from the reporting date.

Amounts reported are to be carried out to four decimal places (i.e., 12-2/3 percent weighted average rate is to be reported as "00.1267").

Line-Item Instructions

The lines of the schedule specify the types of interest-earning assets, interest-bearing liabilities, and synthetic transactions on which information must be reported in the schedule and the types of information that must be reported. The types of assets, liabilities, and derivative and other synthetic items to be reported are described below in connection with each line. The information reported is the same for each type of asset, liability, and derivative and other synthetic transaction. For each type of asset and liability specified, report in each column that part of the total book value of the asset (or liability, or derivative and other synthetic items) that corresponds with the time (from report date to maturity or first re-pricing opportunity as defined above) specified by the column heading given above.

Part I            Assets

- 1            Loans.
Report in the appropriate column the amount of accrual loans and lease receivables re-pricing or maturing in the appropriate time period.
- 2            Securities.
Report in the appropriate column the amount of securities re-pricing or maturing in the appropriate time period.
- 3            Other interest-earning assets.
Report under this asset category the specified information on any other assets that are interest earning as of the report date that are not properly reportable under the two asset categories above.
- 4            Total interest-earning assets.
Report the sum of items 1 through 3.

Part II          Liabilities

- 5            System-wide bonds and notes. (not applicable to associations)
Report under this liability category the amount of System-wide bonds and notes outstanding in the appropriate time interval. Synthetic transactions that modify the re-pricing intervals of these debt instruments can also be reflected by adjusting the amounts in each time interval. If synthetic transactions are included in columns A through E, the impact on the weighted average rate must be reflected in column G.

Schedule RC-N.1
Repricing Opportunities and Relationships (cont'd)

Item No.	Caption and Instructions
6	Intra-system notes payable. Report under this liability category the amount of notes payable to other System entities in the appropriate time interval.
7	Other interest-bearing liabilities. Report under this liability category the specified information on any other liabilities that are interest bearing as of the report date that are not properly reportable under the two liability categories above.
8	Total interest-bearing liabilities. Report the sum of items 5 through 7.
Part III	Derivative and other synthetic items
	Report on the appropriate line the impact of the specified synthetic transactions. Synthetic transactions have the impact of increasing the amount of assets (receive side of a swap) or the amount of a liability (pay side of a swap). Do not net synthetic transactions that have both pay and receive cash flows on the same line. The weighted average interest rate reported in column G must apply to the total synthetic assets or liabilities reported in column F. Do not include synthetic assets and liabilities that have already been netted against assets or liabilities.
9	Synthetic assets. Report the notional amount of synthetic assets under the appropriate time interval column.
10	Synthetic liabilities. Report the notional amount of synthetic liabilities under the appropriate time interval column.
11	GAP. This amount is the sum of items 4 - 8 + 9 - 10.
12	Cumulative GAP. This amount is calculated from item 11.

Schedule RC-N.2 Interest Rate Risk Measurements

---

General Instructions

Schedule RC-N.2 must be reported by all banks and specific associations as determined by FCA examination teams.

This schedule requires the reporting of the results of the institution's internal interest rate risk model for measuring interest rate risk. It also contains the institution's projected final net income for the next 12 months and current calendar year. Interest rate risk measurements are reported for the institution's most recent financial projection and for the impact of 200 and 400 basis point instantaneous and sustained shocks in interest rates to a "base case" scenario.

The schedule contains two parts. Part I includes the measurements for individual banks and selected associations; part II is completed only by banks and includes the measurements for district-wide (combined bank and association) data.

This schedule contains two financial scenarios: (1) column A contains the results of the "most likely" or most current financial projection; and (2) column D contains the results of a "base case" scenario that is based on the current balance sheet configuration and current interest rates. The other columns (B, C, E, and F) contain 200 and 400 basis point instantaneous and sustained shocks to the base case (column D) scenario.

FCA recognizes that the risk-measurement systems of the different institutions may have internal differences and limitations in calculating the market value of assets, liabilities, synthetics, and equity. The interest rate risk measurements reported on this schedule, although not necessarily the same, should be fairly compatible and consistent with the risk measurements reported to an institution's ALCO, senior management, and board of directors.

Market value simulation is the process of generating multiple forecasts for future interest rate scenarios and then discounting the estimated cash flows under those rate scenarios to arrive at the current market value of the various assets, liabilities, derivative and other synthetic items, and the market value of equity. This schedule gathers the results of the institution's market value analysis under six interest rate scenarios, as indicated by the six columns. The interest rate scenarios are: (1) the institution's current forecast for market rates; (2) an instantaneous and sustained 400 basis point decrease in "base case" rates; (3) an instantaneous and sustained 200 basis point decrease in "base case" rates; (4) "base case" interest rates as defined below; (5) an instantaneous and sustained 200 basis point increase in "base case" rates; and (6) an instantaneous and sustained 400 basis point increase in "base case" rates.

The market value (net present value) of assets, liabilities, and equity reported in column D of the schedule are calculated from the current (static) balance sheet as of reporting date and a flat (or liabilities or equity (reported in column D) are materially changed by the projected balance sheet values, the institution must include an explanation of the differences in an addendum.

Schedule RC-N.2 (cont'd)
Interest Rate Risk Measurements

FCA recognizes that market value simulation depends heavily on the assumptions used in the model. For example, market value simulations can incorporate assumptions for fast prepayments (larger early cash flows) from mortgage loans and securities in low-rate scenarios and slow prepayments (smaller early cash flows) from mortgage loans and securities in a high-rate scenario. However, FCA expects the assumptions to be reasonable and supported by some type of study or analysis. FCA would expect, that institutions would change prepayment speeds under the different interest rate scenarios. FCA would also expect the institution's re-pricing of administered rate loans to be reasonable and supported by analysis and/or studies.

Column Instructions

Each column represents a separate scenario under which the risk measurements are reported. With the exception of assumed interest rates, FCA requires that the assumptions used in each scenario be consistent with the institution's most recently updated financial business plan. Some assumptions (such as prepayment speeds) however, would be expected to change based upon the interest rate scenario.

The interest rate assumptions for each of the columns are as follows:

Column	Caption and Instructions
A	The institution's most recent financial projection. Interest rates, projected balance sheet configuration, prepayment speeds, etc., should all be based on the institution's most recent financial projection.
B-F	Plus and minus 200 and 400 basis point shocks to "base case" interest rates. Projected interest rates for column D ("base case") should be based on current interest rates. The current yield curve as of the reporting date is held constant for the reporting period.  Projected interest rates for columns B, C, E, and F should be calculated by shocking the rates used in column D (base case) up or down 200 and 400 basis points. Note: when the current 3-month Treasury bill interest rate at quarter-end is less than 4 percent, both the minus 200 and minus 400 basis point shocks should be replaced with a downward shock equal to one-half of the 3-month Treasury bill rate.

Schedule RC-O

Asset Purchases and Sales

General Instructions

This schedule requires institutions to report the amount outstanding (principal only), as of the quarter end reporting date, of certain transactions with other Farm Credit and non-Farm Credit institutions involving the purchase and sale of loans, leases and other similar lending and leasing assets that remain outstanding as of the last day of the quarter. Amounts to be reported include transactions that were entered into pursuant to an institution's:

- Lending and participations authorities;
- Similar authorities;
- "Other interest in loans" authorities;
- Leasing authorities; and
- Other lending and leasing authorities of the Act.

* Amounts reported in this schedule should not include the purchase and sale of assets reported in Schedule RC, Balance Sheet, as cash, accounts receivable, securities, notes receivable from other Farm Credit institutions, equity investments in other Farm Credit institutions, premises and other fixed assets, or other property owned. However, purchase and sale of participations in notes receivable from System associations (direct loans) should be included in line item 5. Amounts reported in Schedule RC, Balance Sheet, as "other assets" should not routinely be included in this schedule unless the transaction was pursuant to the institution's authorities described above. Note: Exclusions covered in this paragraph may not apply to amounts reported in Memoranda line items 6.a. or 6.b (refer to line item 6 instructions for details).

Do not report in this schedule amounts involving transactions pursuant to the institution's authority to have an investment in farmer notes program or loan transactions with eligible borrowers where the institution has a direct contractual relationship with a non-similar entity borrower via direct involvement in a loan syndication transaction. (See Schedule RC.1, Memoranda, for reporting transactions involving farmer notes programs and non-similar entity loan syndications.)

The schedule distinguishes between transactions with other Farm Credit institutions and those with non-Farm Credit institutions. In addition, the schedule distinguishes transactions completed pursuant to the reporting institution's specific authorities under the Act.

On page the last page of these instructions is a flowchart that provides guidance on how to report a particular loan/lease asset. While the flowchart provides guidance, it may not apply in every situation. Call us for assistance if you need additional guidance or if you have questions on the flowchart.

Schedule RI-D Changes in Net Worth

General Instructions

This schedule covers the detailed reporting for the institution's changes in capital. The schedule, which must add across and down, is designed to provide a complete reconciliation of all increases and decreases (and reasons therefore) of the institution's individual net worth accounts from the end of the prior period to the end of the current period.

Columns A through G of the schedule call for information to be reported by specific net worth categories. The category for each column equates with those items set forth in Schedule RC-H, "Reconciliation of Net Worth." Each of the categories for this schedule, however, is net of any impairments. The categories equate to Schedule RC-H items as follows:

Category	RI-D	RC-H
Capital Stock and Participation
Certificates	Column A, item 15	Items 1 through 5
Paid-in Capital	Column B, item 15	Item 6
Qualified Allocated Surplus	Column C, item 15	Item 9
Nonqualified Allocated Surplus	Column D, item 15	Item 10
Surplus Reserve	Column E, item 15	Item 13
Earned Surplus Unallocated	Column F, item 15	Item 11
Total Net Worth	Column G, item 15	Item 14

Column G, the Total Net Worth category, must report the sum of amounts in columns A through F plus any amounts appropriately categorized as "Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income" in accordance with ASC Topic 220, Comprehensive Income (formerly SFAS No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income). Accordingly, the sum of columns A through F for each line item may not necessarily equal the amount reported in column G. However, the amount reported as an ending balance in column G, line 15 for total net worth must equal the amount reported on Schedule RC-H, "Total Net Worth", item 14.

As mentioned, all beginning, amended, and ending balances are to be reported net of any impairment, if applicable. The information required pertaining to activity during the quarter for each net worth category is specified in items 1 through 14 of this schedule.
